Motion for Court to Enter Agreed Order

Comes the Defendant, through counsel, and moves the Court to enter the Agreed Order submitted as an exhibit to this motion. In support Defendant submits the following: The Defendant is currently on 5 years' supervised release status, supervision having commenced on October 5, 2012. On 2/12/14 Sr. U.S. Probation Officer Lisa A. Capps filed a Report on Offender Under Supervision, alleging that the Defendant tested presumptively positive for marijuana on 1/16/14 and 2/12/14. Additionally, the report alleged that Defendant was cited for simple possession of marijuana in Robertson County, Tennessee. The probation officer requested no action be taken by the Court, and it was anticipated that the parties would submit an Agreed Order modifying Defendant's release conditions, to add drug testing and treatment. On 2/18/14 this Court ordered no action as recommended by the Probation Officer, and per the probation officer's anticipation, the parties have submitted the instant Agreed Order. The Agreed Order is consistent with the Probation Officer's recommendations.

WHEREFORE, Defendant moves the Court to enter the attached Agreed Order.

Respectfully submitted,
